SAMUEL TINSLEY & CO.'S NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE NEW WORKS OF FICTION AT ALL LIBRARIES.

EACH IN THREE VOLUMES.—READY.

LADY'S HOLM. By Annie L.

WALKER, Author of "Against Her Will," "A Canadian Heroine," &c. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

The Academy (August 31) says:—"As a piece of genuine, careful, and successful work, 'Lady's Holm' will bear a very favourable comparison with most of the new novels of the season. The life led by Mary Langford and her uncle Stephen at Lady's Holm is very sweet and beautiful, and the conception of a daintily pure and highly refined mind. 'Lady's Holm' is certain to become popular with a large circle of readers who are weary and disgusted with much in modern fiction." The Spectator (Sept. 7) says:—"Miss Walker's novel will be found well worth reading by all who can enjoy picturesque description and good incisive delineation of character." John Bull (Sept. 14) says:—"It is a long while since we have read a prettier story than 'Lady's Holm.' It has a charm of its own, which serves it from the first page to the last, and makes it quite a matter of regret when that last page is reached. We cordially recommend the book, which will be found thoroughly readable." The Scotsman says:—"A novel of more than average merit."

FROZEN HEARTS. By G. Webb

APPLETON. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

The Academy (August 31) says:—"We confess to having read 'Frozen Hearts' with interest. It is full of all kinds of excitement, and in some places reveals evidence of strong dramatic power." The Court Circular says:—"An indubitably vigorous and interesting novel. It certainly deserves a warm reception. 'Frozen Hearts' is a very clever book." The Scotsman says:—"There is so much power and pathos in the pretence as to give it an impress of realism. The story is a wholesome one too. The local colouring is fairly correct, and the novel is, on the whole, one that most people can read with hearty relish." The Standard says:—"Frozen Hearts is quite readable."

THEY WERE NEIGHBOURS. By

LAINDON HILL. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

EYES SO BLUE. By Agnes Law.

3 vols. 31s. 6d.

"A story which moves onwards, raises expectation, and is certainly not without interest. Miss Law is not to be confounded with the mob of lady novelists who write with only too much ease. There is decided promise in the first page to the last, and makes it quite a matter of regret when that last page is reached. We cordially recommend the book, which will be found thoroughly readable."—Standard.

WILL is the CAUSE of WOE. By the Author of "Dacia Singleton," "What Money Can't Do," &c. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

GEORGE HERN: a Novel. By

By HENRY GLENHAM. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

"The author has known how to conceive and work out an original and interesting plot; many of the personages of his story are creations of no ordinary merit. He possesses very considerable powers of depicting the peculiar phase of English provincial life he has chosen to illustrate; and he has a keen appreciation of humour."—Scotsman.

BY-WAYS. By Mary W. Paxton.

3 vols. 31s. 6d.

"Seldom has a more effective first appearance been made in fiction. The book has certain qualities which are seldom found except in the works of authors of long experience as well as high ability. The style is easy and flowing. At the same time it is never slipshod and obscure. The characters are drawn with unhesitating firmness and certainty of touch. And all are creations of singular freshness, originality, and dramatic force. The book is of absorbing interest from beginning to end."—Scotsman.

The GARDEN at MONKHOLME.

By ANNIE ARMITT. 3 vols. 31s. 6d. [This day.

Each Complete in One Volume.—Ready.

IN the SPRING of MY LIFE: a

Love Story. By the Princess OLGA CANTACUZÈNE. (From the French.) Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

The Athenæum says:—"A charming little romance. It is treated so delicately and simply, and is so free from vulgarity and tawdry commonplace, that it interests the reader from beginning to end."

The GREGORS: a Cornish Story.

By JANE H. SPETTIGUE. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

The Scotsman says:—"The story is emphatically original and genuinely interesting." John Bull (Sept. 7) says:—"A really interesting and attractive story." John Bull (Sept. 14) says:—"We do not remember to have seen Miss Spettigue's name before. Her book has in any case much merit. If it is a first effort, it shows no common promise. It is a well and vigorously drawn picture of life among a people whose peculiarities had not been smoothed away by civilisation. Not a few touches remind us of the pen of George Eliot, the master of whom all writers of this kind of fiction may be content to be considered disciples. We can recommend 'The Gregors' as a well-written and interesting tale." The Graphic (Sept. 14) says:—"The story is told with considerable force and spirit, and its rough and homely dramatic personae are decidedly life-like figures. Altogether it is a very creditable performance."

SAMUEL TINSLEY & Co., 10 Southampton Street,

Strand.

POPULAR NOVELS,

AT ALL LIBRARIES.

NEW NOVEL BY MORTIMER AND FRANCES COLLINS

YOU PLAY ME FALSE. By Mortimer and FRANCES COLLINS. 3 vols. crown 8vo.

WORLD.

"In those parts of 'You Play Me False' which obviously come from Mrs. Collins herself, there is a singularly happy preservation of Mortimer Collins's manifold graces. Independently of this the story has a charm of its own. It is original. It is healthy, and gives us real characters instead of conventional puppets. Every page is steeped in that vigorous, glowing, poetic love of beauty which was with Mortimer Collins no affectation."

LOVE'S CROSSES. By the Author of "Olive Varcoe," &c. 3 vols. crown 8vo.

STRANGE WATERS. By R. E. FRANCELIN, Author of "Olympia," "Pearl and Emerald." 3 vols. crown 8vo.

SATURDAY REVIEW.

"Amusing, exciting, and original."

EXAMINER.

"A novel which betrays true genius. The reader who wishes to realise the dramatic power possessed by the author need only read the closing scene, which for emotional life and passion surpasses any we are able to recall in modern English fiction."

SALVIA RICHMOND. In 3 vols. crown 8vo.

MORNING POST.

"The narrative rattles on amusingly, introducing many good situations. Whenever Salvia Richmond tells her own story she does it well."

OBSERVER.

"This is a novel with a plot, and a very cleverly managed plot too.....Its merits of animation, of brightness, and occasionally of brilliancy, are not to be overlooked."

ATHENAEUM.

"Probably the first book of a person of considerable ability, who writes with much fluency and no small gift of language. Nothing could be better in its way than the two pages in which the invalid and his surroundings are vigorously and keenly sketched."

RICHARD BENTLEY & SON, 8 New Burlington Street, Publishers in Ordinary to Her Majesty the Queen.

LADIES! READ THIS ADVERTISEMENT. THE GREATEST BARGAIN ON RECORD.

The Empire Sewing Machine Company of 147 Victoria Street, London, E.C., are selling first-class Sewing Machines at about one-fourth of their real value. This machine is absolutely without a rival in the market. It is guaranteed to produce first-class workmanship at the rate of nearly

A MARVEL!

1,500 stitches per minute, and may be thoroughly depended upon in every respect.

PRICE ONLY 27s. 6d. EACH.

The lowest amount at which a good reliable Sewing Machine has ever been offered to the public. To prevent disappointment, and to ensure early execution, orders, with P.O.O. for 27s. 6d., made payable at General Post Office, to Mr. W. Sargent, Manager, Empire Sewing Machine Company, 147 Queen Victoria Street, London, E.C., should be sent in as soon as possible, since the demand for the Machine will undoubtedly be far in excess of the limited stock on hand.

N.B.—The Machines will be forwarded per return, carefully packed, to all parts of Great Britain and Ireland. Addresses must be plainly written, and any machine not approved of will be immediately exchanged.

Residents in the country will find this an admirable opportunity for obtaining a first-class Sewing Machine direct from the consignees—less both the manufacturer's and the retailer's profits, which usually amount to 65 per cent., and which come from the public pocket.

To those in want of a livelihood this Machine will be a great boon, making, as it does, about 1,500 stitches per minute. The profit accruing to the owner for one week's work will clear the expense originally incurred in purchasing it.

No application will be received after twenty-one days from this date, as a colonial firm has the refusal of any left on hand beyond that time.

(Signed)

WALTER SARGENT.
